30TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME YEAR C 23RD OCTOBER 2022 MISSION SUNDAY

My dear parishioners,

As we come to the end of this month, I would like to bring to your attention a few activities that would take place at the beginning of the month of November.

All Souls day is fast approaching; envelopes are available starting from this Sunday for those who wish to offer masses for the deceased members of your family or friends. Once completed please return so that the names could be added into the book of the Dead and masses offered for them. (Mass times will be announced on Sunday the 30th of October)

Vinnies are on the lookout for those who would like to help with Supplementing their Christmas Hampers with dry goods, such as canned goods. If you would like to help out in this worthy cause, please drop your donations to the Cathedral Office.

Special Feast Day's for this month;

28th October – (Feast) Sts Simon and Jude, Apostles

It is with Joy that I would like to announce that Vinco Davis Muriyadan, a seminarian of the Archdiocese of Hobart and John - Joseph Martin of the Little Eucharistic Brothers of Divine Will will be ordained as deacons. Vinco on the 30th of November at Christ the Priest Church in Kingston and John-Joseph Martin on the 13th of December in St James' Catholic Church in Cygnet. Please pray for them as they prepare for their diaconate.

Prayer Request - If you are undergoing difficulties and are in need of prayers, please drop your request in the Prayer boxes during Masses on Weekdays and Sundays. In Christ, Fr Leonard.

WE APPRECIATE - ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL PARISH COMMUNITY

This week we shed the spotlight on Jane McKeown, who has for the past number of years served St Mary's Cathedral Parish in numerous ways as a volunteer. A woman of faith and strong sense of service, she has held positions such as in the pastoral council, parish leadership team member as well as now as the parish secretary. Jane is ever ready with her welcoming smile to help out anyone in need who comes into the Cathedral Centre. We appreciate Jane, and pray for God's blessings of good health and happiness always.

With Gratitude, St Mary's Cathedral Parish
Thank-you for your ministry.

MISSION SUNDAY

This week Catholic Mission offers us the opportunity to be part of a life-changing program which aims to help prevent malnutrition, especially in babies and young children, and help disadvantaged families provide food for their loved ones. The Deberety Goat Rearing Centre is a dream of the local Church and community in Emdibir. When established, the Centre aims to provide nutritious goats milk for families in need, like Neela's*, so that babies like Ajani* can be healthy and strong.

In the rural region of Emdibir, where 70 percent of families struggle to put food on their tables, we are working towards providing them with a sustainable source of nutrition by building a goat rearing centre. The resources produced through the Centre will help fight malnutrition, a phenomenon that contributes to 50 percent of child deaths. This project is led by Fr Habte, a local priest who is dedicated to raising the local community out of poverty by creating employment, providing sustainable food resources, and bringing hope.

Please give generously today to help kickstart this life giving program by using the appeal envelope provided, going online at catholicmission.org.au/ethiopia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also help many other similar Church run mission programs around the world.

Message from Pope Francis for Mission Sunday

Our liturgical prayer and collection on World Mission Sunday, Oct. 22-23, 2022, is guided by the scriptural quote, "You shall be my witnesses." (Acts 1:8).

In selecting this theme, Pope Francis reminds the faithful that every baptized Christian is called to be a witness to Christ. By imitation of Him who was sent by the Eternal Father, we, too, are sent to witness to the nations the presence of God's Kingdom in our midst.

REFLECTION - 30TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

GO OUT TO ALL THE WORLD AND TELL THE GOOD NEWS.

As this is Mission Sunday throughout Australia it is appropriate for us to stop and reflect on what this means for us as baptised Christians.

We are called to support the needy and sometimes this might mean for us to go beyond our own comfort for the love of God and our neighbour.

We are aware that this modern world is vastly different from what we have known in the past. Technology has enabled huge advantages for the world.

People from many countries search for a more secure, harmonious and fulfilling life. We pray for those people who are unable to live their lives in a free and safe environment. We are truly blessed to have in our midst missionary minded, selfless priests who are generously following Christ's command to go out and tell the Good News of God's kingdom of mercy, compassion, love and salvation for all. Like St. Paul missionaries are 'fighting the fight and running the race'. They have left all that is familiar to them and willingly familiarise themselves with all that is new. With gratitude to God, let us respect, love, and support them praying that God will bless their efforts. May Mary and Joseph be their guide. We also are called to give witness to the presence of God acknowledging and expressing our reliance on him. The Tax Collector's relationship with God in today's Gospel, was one of humble admission of sinfulness and sincere sorrow. He prayed, 'God be merciful to me, a sinner.' The Pharisee was proud and self centered. Jesus said; "He who humbles himself will be exalted."

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, The Lord is with Thee; Blessed art thou among women, And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us sinners, Now and at the hour of our death. Amen

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done to me according to your word.

Hail Mary. . .

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary. . .

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God. R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Match up the correct endings

Draw a line from the first half of each sentence to its correct ending.

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector went

you will be honoured.

The Pharisee prayed

"God, have pity on me! I am a sinner."

The Tax Collector prayed

you will be put down.

If you put yourself above others

to the temple to pray.

If you humble yourself

"God, I thank you that I am not greedy or dishonest."

What things did the tax collector say to God?

Colour in the tax collector.

READINGS OF THE DAY - 30TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C

First Reading      Ecclesiasticus 35:12-14,16-18

The Lord is a judge who is no respecter of personages.
He shows no respect of personages to the detriment of a poor man,
he listens to the plea of the injured party.
He does not ignore the orphan's supplication,
nor the widow's as she pours out her story.
The man who with his whole heart serves God will be accepted,
his petitions will carry to the clouds.
The humble man's prayer pierces the clouds,
until it arrives he is inconsolable nor will he desist until the Most High takes notice of him,
acquits the virtuous and delivers judgement.
And the Lord will not be slow,
nor will he be dilatory on their behalf.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 32:2-3. 17-19. 23. R. v.7

(R.) The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad.
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth.
The just call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress.
3. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted;
those whose spirit is crushed he will save.
The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants.
Those who hide in him shall not be condemned.

Second Reading      2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

My life is already being poured away as a libation, and the time has come for me to be gone. I have fought the good fight to the end; I have run the race to the finish; I have kept the faith; all there is to come now is the crown of righteousness reserved for me, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that Day; and not only to me but to all those who have longed for his Appearing.
The first time I had to present my defence, there was not a single witness to support me. Every one of them deserted me – may they not be held accountable for it. But the Lord stood by me and gave me power, so that through me the whole message might be proclaimed for all the pagans to hear; and so I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

The Lord will rescue me from all evil attempts on me, and bring me safely
to his heavenly kingdom.
To him be glory for ever
and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation
he has entrusted to us.
of our heart.

Alleluia!

Gospel      Luke: 18:9-14

Jesus spoke the following parable to some people who prided themselves on being virtuous and despised everyone else, 'Two men went up to the Temple to pray, one a Pharisee, the other a tax collector. The Pharisee stood there and said this prayer to himself, "I thank you, God, that I am not grasping, unjust, adulterous like the rest of mankind, and particularly that I am not like this tax collector here. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes on all I get." The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'
