Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A – 15th February 2026

The Freedom of a Simple "Yes"

In a world that often feels like a maze of fine print, hidden agendas, social games of say or do just the right thing," in other words, life keeps getting complicated. The readings this Sunday offer a refreshing, if challenging, clarity. It calls for what can be considered a bad word now days, "simplicity". From the ancient wisdom of Ecclesiasticus to the piercing honesty of the Sermon on the Mount, the message is singular: God is not trying to trick us. He does not hide behind ambiguity. He simply asks us to choose.

Ecclesiasticus reminds us that "if you wish, you can keep the commandments." There is freedom in this beautiful moment of dignity God bestows on us. God respects our agency so much that He refuses to complicate the terms of our relationship. He doesn't set traps or create "gotcha" moments. Instead, He offers a straightforward map. The complexity in our spiritual lives rarely comes from God's laws; it usually comes from our own attempts to find loopholes in them.

Jesus takes this transparency a step further in the Gospel. He tells us to let our "Yes" mean "Yes" and our "No" mean "No." Why? Because anything more—the swearing of oaths, the over-explaining, the "maybe" that is actually a "no" in disguise—comes from a place of insecurity or manipulation. We complicate our speech when we are trying to manage how others perceive us or hedge our bets to avoid commitment, being held to our word. And the simple truth is, we can't play games with God.

Jesus calls us out of that exhausting cycle. He invites us into a life where:

- We don't have to keep track of what we said to whom.
- We don't have to "spin" the truth.
- Our words match our hearts.

A truly Catholic life is built on this foundation of transparency. God's "yoke is easy" because it is honest. To follow Him is to step out of the shadows of "it depends" and into the sunlight of "I will."

This week, let us ask for the grace of a simple heart. May we trust that God is as direct with us as He asks us to be with one another, offering a love that is steady, a truth that is clear, and a path that begins with a simple, honest "Yes."

READINGS OF THE DAY—6TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR 1

First Reading

Sirach 15:15-20

If you wish, you can keep the commandments,
to behave faithfully is within your power.
He has set fire and water before you;
put out your hand to whichever you prefer.
Man has life and death before him;
whichever a man likes better will be given him.
For vast is the wisdom of the Lord;
he is almighty and all-seeing.
His eyes are on those who fear him,
he notes every action of man.
He never commanded anyone to be godless,
he has given no one permission to sin.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 118:1-2. 4-5. 17-18. 33-34. R. v.1

(R.) Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

1. They are happy whose life is blameless,
who follow God's law!

They are happy those who do his will,
seeking him with all their hearts. (R.)

2. You have laid down your precepts to be obeyed with care.

May my footsteps be firm
to obey your statutes. (R.)

3. Bless your servant and I shall live and obey your word.

Open my eyes that I may consider the wonders of your law. (R.)

4. Teach me the demands of your statutes and I will keep them to the end.

Train me to observe your law,
to keep it with my heart. (R.)

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell.

'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'
