TRADITIONAL PRAYERS

There are some prayers, aspirations and hymns which have emerged from the story of the Church in various times and places and have become an integral part of the ongoing prayer life of the Church: they represent a common or unifying link for all Catholics and have become, in essence, part of what it is to "be" Catholic. These are the prayers all Catholics are encouraged to know and use; they form the basis of individual and institutional prayer. Examples are The Sign of the Cross, the Lord's Prayer, Hail Mary; Glory Be (Trinity Prayer); the Morning Offering; Act of Sorrow; and the Apostles' Creed. Other denominations of Christianity also have favoured prayers and hymns which come out of their tradition and history and help them to remain unified in and identify with, their particular tradition. Some traditional and formal prayers have developed as a result of particular social, historical, political and religious contexts, while other traditional prayers have evolved from Scripture (the Magnificat, Stations of the Cross). Some evolved from particular charisms, such as the Monastic life (e.g. the Prayer of St Francis of Assisi; The Prayer of St Ignatius), or devotion to particular saints e.g. Marian Spirituality (the Hail Mary; The Rosary, the Salve Regina, the Memorare).

Our Father (Lord's Prayer)

In response to the request of his followers "Lord, teach us to pray as you do", Jesus gave them the 'Our Father' or the Lord's Prayer. Even though the Our Father is recounted in different words in the Gospels of Luke (11.2-4) and Matthew (6.9-13), this essentially reinforces the argument that the spirit of prayer is more important than the formula of words. The 'Our Father', itself providing a pattern of prayer for contemporary followers of Christ, captures key elements in the Christian understanding of the purposes of prayer - praising God, petitioning God, maintaining a relationship with God and a yearning for the coming of God's reign in the 'here and now'. The Catechism of the Catholic Church identifies seven petitions (seven is the perfect number) in The Lord's Prayer.

These are:

May your holy name be honoured;
May your kingdom come;
May your will be done on earth just as it is in heaven;
Give us today the food we need;
Forgive us the wrongs we have done, just as we forgive the wrongs others have done to us;
Do not put us to hard testing
Keep us safe from all that is evil

REFLECTION -18TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

In today's gospel, Jesus speaks to us as he did to the man from the crowd: "Watch out and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made more secured by what he owns..." The pursuit of wealth and the pleasures of this world have so blinded us to the reality that we are pilgrims here on earth. Avarice is one of the seven capital sins. It is a sin which makes one become like the material good that one seeks. It is a hidden enemy of every child of God. So, we must avoid it because it is dangerously contagious!

Concerning avarice, Thomas Aquinas says: "Temporal goods are subject to man, that he may use them according to his needs, not that he should make them his main purpose, or be overly anxious about them." The more we place our hopes on things of this world, the more we lose sight of heaven. This is because: "Where a man's wealth is, there is his soul."

Finally, let us fix our eyes and minds on heavenly things, and not only on the vain things of this earth. There is a saying that: "Real men and women love Jesus, and not riches!" Indeed, real men and women are those who in spite of their fame, wealth, achievements, etcetera, love Jesus above all things.

Peace be with you all!

The Angelus Prayer

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary.

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit.

Hail Mary, full of grace, The Lord is with Thee; Blessed art thou among women, And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us sinners, Now and at the hour of our death. Amen

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord.

R. Be it done to me according to your word.

Hail Mary. . .

V. And the Word was made flesh.

R. And dwelt among us.

Hail Mary. . .

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God. R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray: Pour forth, we beseech Thee, O Lord, Thy grace into our hearts, that we to whom the Incarnation of Christ Thy Son was made known by the message of an angel, may by His Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of His Resurrection. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Honouring the Fatherhood of God

Sunday 7th August 2022

This is a special opportunity to pray for our family members – asking God the Father “the Father from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named” (EPH 3:14-15) to bless and protect them and all families.

Photos of family members (especially those in need of healing) may be placed on the sanctuary where they will remain throughout the Holy Hour and Mass.

“Oh how My Love as Father has been forgotten by mankind”.

Life for the Glory of God the Father, page 85.

“Call Me by the name Father with confidence and love and you will receive everything from this Father with Love and Mercy.”

Life for the Glory of God the Father, page 90.

“I desire only this: That one day may be consecrated to honouring Me in a particular way under the title of Father of all mankind...”

Life for the Glory of God the Father, page 97.

Pope Francis said: “For a Christian, to pray is simply to say ‘Abba’, to say ‘Papa’, to say ‘Dad’, to say ‘Father’ but with the trust of a child.”

READINGS OF THE DAY - 18TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME - YEAR C

First Reading

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun?

What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm: 89:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. v.1

(R.) In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

1. You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.' To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night.
2. You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning. In the morning it springs up and flowers: by evening it withers and fades.
3. Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants.
4. In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

A man in the crowd said to Jesus,

'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.'

'My friend,' he replied, 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.'

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do; I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time." But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.'
