THE MOST HOLY TRINITY YEAR C - 15TH JUNE 2025

THE TRINITY

Glory be to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

' Lord, Holy Father, with your only begotten Son and the Holy Spirit you are one God and one Lord.' (Preface of the Holy Trinity.)

Remember the Old Testament account of Moses' conversation with God on the holy Mountain. Moses was given the mandate from God to set the Israelites free from the Egyptians. This story is found in the book of Exodus (Ch. 3; v 13-). In this story God reveals his name. "I AM WHO I AM." " You are to say to the sons of Israel; ' Yahweh the GOD of your fathers, the GOD of Abraham, the GOD of Isaac and the GOD of Jacob has sent me to you. This is my name for all time, by this name shall I be invoked for all generations to come. Central to our faith is our belief in the Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the one God head, three persons united as one each in a communion. GOD is LOVE. God the Father is the creator of all that lives who loves, cares, forgives and protects all that exists. Jesus is the Son of God both human and divine who was sent into this world to proclaim the truth by establishing the Kingdom of God on earth. Jesus is the living Word of God. The author of the Prologue of St. John's Gospel includes the following verse(14) 'The Word was made flesh and lives among us and we saw his glory, the glory that is his as the only Son of the Father full of grace and truth. Jesus and his disciples were moving around the villages of Galilee spreading the Good News proclaiming the Kingdom of God by word and action. Jesus went into the mountains and quiet places to be in prayerful union with his Father. Read Matthew 11; v 25. ' I bless you Father, Lord of Heaven and earth for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children.. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleases you to do..' When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them how to pray Jesus taught them the beautiful prayer we frequently pray; The our Father. (Matt 6;v7-14) 'Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love, Send forth your Spirit they shall be created and you shall renew the face of the earth. ' Spirit in my life I see you are God who walks with me. You hold my life in your hands, close beside you I will stand. I give all my life to you, help me Spirit to be true (Fr Frank Andersen MSC). Amen.

Pope Francis has declared 2025 a Jubilee Year for our Church, themed "Pilgrims of Hope", a year of hope for a world suffering the impacts of war, the ongoing effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, and the climate crisis. As Pope Francis states "the forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire; that is why I have chosen as the motto of the Jubilee, Pilgrims of Hope."

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

READINGS OF THE DAY – The Most Holy Trinity Year C

First Reading

Proverbs 8:22-31

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded,
before the oldest of his works.
From everlasting I was firmly set,
from the beginning, before earth came into being.
The deep was not, when I was born,
there were no springs to gush with water.
Before the mountains were settled,
before the hills, I came to birth;
before he made the earth, the countryside,
or the first grains of the world's dust.
When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there,
when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep,
when he thickened the clouds above,
when he fixed fast the springs of the deep,
when he assigned the sea its boundaries
– and the waters will not invade the shore –
when he laid down the foundations of the earth,
I was by his side, a master craftsman,
delighting him day after day,
ever at play in his presence,
at play everywhere in his world,
delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 8:4-9. R. v.2

(R.) O Lord, our God,
how wonderful your name in all the earth!

1. When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? (R.)
2. Yet you have made him little less than a god;
with glory and honour you crowned him,
gave him power over the works of your hand,
put all things under his feet. (R.)
3. All of them, sheep and cattle,
yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters. (R.)

Second Reading

Romans 5:1-5

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory.
But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive,

because the love of God has been poured into our hearts
by the Holy Spirit which has been given us.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I still have many things to say to you
but they would be too much for you now.
But when the Spirit of truth comes
he will lead you to the complete truth,
since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
and he will tell you of the things to come.
He will glorify me,
since all he tells you
will be taken from what is mine.
Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:
All he tells you
will be taken from what is mine'.
