FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT— 21ST DECEMBER 2025

Just imagine, if you can. We are in Jerusalem somewhere around 730 years before the coming of Christ. King Ahaz is declaring that he will not put the Lord to the test but Isaiah gives one of the most important prophecies of the Old Testament. That there will be a maiden with child and will give birth to a Son whom she will call “Immanuel” which means “God is with us.”

Could you imagine how King Ahaz, who did not want to put the Lord to a test, reacted to this prophecy. Could you imagine how the Jewish people would have reacted. Amazement, probably disbelief, probably amused that such a thing was possible. Yet here we are, in the year 2025 Knowing that this prophecy did indeed come true.

We have this amazing four week period called Advent which is totally about recognizing exactly what Isaiah prophesied. A time of reflection, wonder and awe, knowing that God did indeed come to earth as a baby, grew into a man and walked among us.

Yet there are still doubters and disbelievers who believe in themselves more than they believe in God. So, it comes to us to shine the light on the truth. Just like the Servant of Christ who called himself Paul. He went out preaching this good news of this Child born to a maiden, who was indeed the one prophesied by Asaiah. Paul told everyone who would listen that it was through him that we receive Grace and our mission to preach to all the nations

Think of this miracle of the birth of a child to a maiden, the faith of Joseph to take her as his wife and between them raise this child who becomes acknowledged, by the Holy Spirit, at his baptism as the Son of God.

It is our belief, our faith, our joy and happiness that we project when at Christmas we celebrate this amazing occasion. Like Paul, it is when we tell others of our joy and faith that the word is spread to all those unbelievers and doubters. This is the mission given to us by Jesus Himself, through His apostles and through His church.

Just like King Ahaz did not want to put the lord to the test, so do we today have no need to test the Lord, because he answered all our prayers when He came into our world on Christmas Day. We should celebrate, we should sing carols, we should light up our trees and houses, and more than any of these we should tell all that we meet that the reason we do all these things is to celebrate the coming of Immanuel “God is with us”.

Pope Francis has declared 2025 a Jubilee Year for our Church, themed “Pilgrims of Hope”, a year of hope for a world suffering the impacts of war, the ongoing effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, and the climate crisis. As Pope Francis states “the forthcoming Jubilee can contribute greatly to restoring a climate of hope and trust as a prelude to the renewal and rebirth that we so urgently desire; that is why I have chosen as the motto of the Jubilee, Pilgrims of Hope.”

READINGS OF THE DAY—FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT—(YEAR A)

First Reading

Isaiah 7:10-14

The Lord spoke to Ahaz and said, 'Ask the Lord your God for a sign for yourself coming either from the depths of Sheol or from the heights above.' 'No', Ahaz answered 'I will not put the Lord to the test.'

Then Isaiah said:

'Listen now, House of David:

are you not satisfied with trying the patience of men without trying the patience of my God, too?

The Lord himself, therefore, will give you a sign.

It is this: the maiden is with child and will soon give birth to a son

whom she will call Immanuel,

a name which means "God-is-with-us".'

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23:1-6. R. see vv 7. 10

(R.) Let the Lord enter;
he is king of glory.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.

It is he who set it on the seas;

on the waters he made it firm. (R.)

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?

Who shall stand in his holy place?

The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. (R.)

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.

Such are the men who seek him,

seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R.)

Second Reading

Romans 1:1-7

From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus who has been called to be an apostle, and specially chosen to preach the Good News that God promised long ago through his prophets in the scriptures.

This news is about the Son of God, who, according to the human nature he took, was a descendant of David: it is about Jesus Christ our Lord who, in the order of the spirit, the spirit of holiness that was in him, was proclaimed Son of God in all his power through his resurrection from the dead. Through him we received grace and our apostolic mission to preach the obedience of faith to all pagan nations in honour of his name. You are one of these nations, and by his call belong to Jesus Christ. To you all, then, who are God's beloved in Rome, called to be saints, may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send grace and peace.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

A virgin will give birth to a son;

his name will be Emmanuel: God is with us.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 1:18-24

This is how Jesus Christ came to be born. His mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph; but before they came to live together she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a man of honour and wanting to spare her publicity, decided to divorce her informally. He had made up his mind to do this when the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because she has conceived what is in her by the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son and you must name him Jesus, because he is the one who is to save his people from their sins.' Now all this took place to fulfil the words spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and they will call him Emmanuel, a name which means 'God-is-with-us'. When Joseph woke up he did what the angel of the Lord had told him to do: he took his wife to his home
